

Denbighshire & Conwy Domestic Abuse Forum Presents the multi-agency training events on Introduction to Domestic Abuse

These one day training events aim to:

- Identify the wide range of behaviours involved in domestic abuse and a common definition
- Recognise different attitudes and myths in relation to domestic abuse and individual & organisational responses
- Explore the barriers to seeking help and strategies to reduce them
- Review practice in relation to identifying the needs of, and supporting, parents and children
- Understand the relationship between the abuse of adults and that of children
- Understand how people of all ages are affected by domestic abuse
- Increase the reporting of incidents of domestic abuse, and reduce the number of repeat incidents

The day includes interactive training elements to explore the issues surrounding domestic abuse and a full set of associated hand outs for the day is included in the fee.

If cancellation is received 5 working days, or more, prior of a course, an alternative date, or a full refund, will be offered. The course fee will need to be paid in full if cancellation is received in less than 5 working days of the course, although a substitute attendee will be acceptable.

Following receipt of your application form you will be informed whether or not you have secured a place on the course, or whether you are on a waiting list. You will then receive a final confirmation before the commencement of the course. Participants who are not booked on a course in this way, will not be able to participate if they turn up on the day, as this would not be fair to those on any waiting list.
